RE: MUR 5410
Oberweis Dairy, Inc.
Robert Renaut
James D. Oberweis
Oberweis for U.S. Senate 2004, Inc. and Joseph M. Wiegand, in his official capacity as treasurer

Dear Mr. Timoney:

This is in reference to the complaint you filed with the Federal Election Commission on February 13, 2004, concerning possible violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

The Commission found that there was reason to believe that Oberweis Dairy, Inc., James D. Oberweis, and Robert Renaut violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b by making or consenting to the making of prohibited in-kind contributions in the form of coordinated communications to Oberweis for U.S. Senate 2004, Inc. and to James D. Oberweis. Further, the Commission found reason to believe that Oberweis for U.S. Senate 2004, Inc. and its treasurer, in his official capacity, and James D. Oberweis violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b by knowingly accepting such contributions. The Commission also found reason to believe that Oberweis for U.S. Senate 2004, Inc. and its treasurer, in his official capacity, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) by failing to report such contributions. Finally, the Commission found no reason to believe that the above-named respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b in connection with "meet and greet" events and a campaign-sponsored sweepstakes. The Commission conducted an investigation in this matter. On January 19, 2007, the Commission accepted a conciliation agreement signed on behalf of the respondents and closed the file in this matter.
